

PROVINCIAL INCENTIVE PROGRAM

Do you have a Registered Disability Savings Plan?
If so, you would also qualify for the Provincial Incentive Program.

The Provincial Incentive Program (PIP) provides Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP) holders with a one-time $150 stipend for their RDSP account as a means of helping grow financial security for persons with disabilities.

Administered by the Newfoundland and Labrador Association for Community Living (NLACL), the PIP is easy to apply for. Simply fill out this application form and send it to NLACL along with a copy of your Contribution Acknowledgement Form. (You can get this from your bank or financial institution. It lists the name of the RDSP holder, the beneficiary, and the RDSP account number). Upon approval, the stipend cheque will be sent to the financial institution for deposit into the person's RDSP account.

The Provincial Incentive Program (PIP) is made possible through funding from the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador. You can find out more about the PIP by contacting the Disability Policy Office by e-mail at disability.policy.office@gov.nl.ca by telephone at 1-888-729-6279.
